

International Travel Request Form

All faculty/staff travel, university coordinated student travel, guest/recruit and non-employee travel must be approved by Dean or AVP. Vice President approval on international travel is no longer required.

All employee international travel must be registered three weeks prior to the start date of travel – travel registration submitted less than three weeks before departure date will require vp approval. Employee travel is registered in SAP Concur and this document must be signed and attached to either the Concur Request ID or the Expense Report.
